

COLORFUL CELEBRATION

This month's project is inspired by the watercolor illustrations and artwork Dylan Glynn. Be Amazing: A History of Pride not only educates readers with LGBTQ history but brings to life iconic people who Desmond is Amazing has and does look up to and who are pillars within the LGBTQ community. Consider who you look up to in your life, both historical and present. Select one or multiple to create watercolor and ink artworks depicting their likeness or an important moment in their life.

Share photos of your creative process or reading the book using #LymanAllynAtHome.

Material List:

- Watercolor paper
- Watercolor paint
- Paint brushes
- Regular pencil
- Reference photos

Optional Materials:

- Extra sketch paper to practice
- Colored pencils or other coloring material
- Black pen for outlines or details

June Book of the Month

Be Amazing: A History of Pride

Be yourself always. Desmond is Amazing, a drag-kid model, fashion icon and social justice activist shares how they have come to live by that motto. By sharing the history of courageous people like Marsha P. Johnson, Sylvia Rivera, and RuPaul, readers of any age will learn how society has become more inclusive but that we still should celebrate and fight for LGBTQ rights. Illustrator Dylan Glynn brings to life these historical moments and the colorful and joyful world that Desmond can live in.