

Lyman Allyn Park

CONSTRUCTION PROGRESS

As construction began, staff and interns helped move outdoor sculpture to a temporary location.

Pictured above are Museum Director Sam Quigley, Registrar and Director of Exhibitions Jane LeGrow, and Curator Tanya Pohrt.

Comparison of the grounds after tree and brush clearing.
The Museum is much more visible from the Deshon-Allyn House tiered terrace.

October 2024

2022 Members' Garden Party

View of the grounds by the Deshon-Allyn House where the new eco-friendly filtration pond will be.

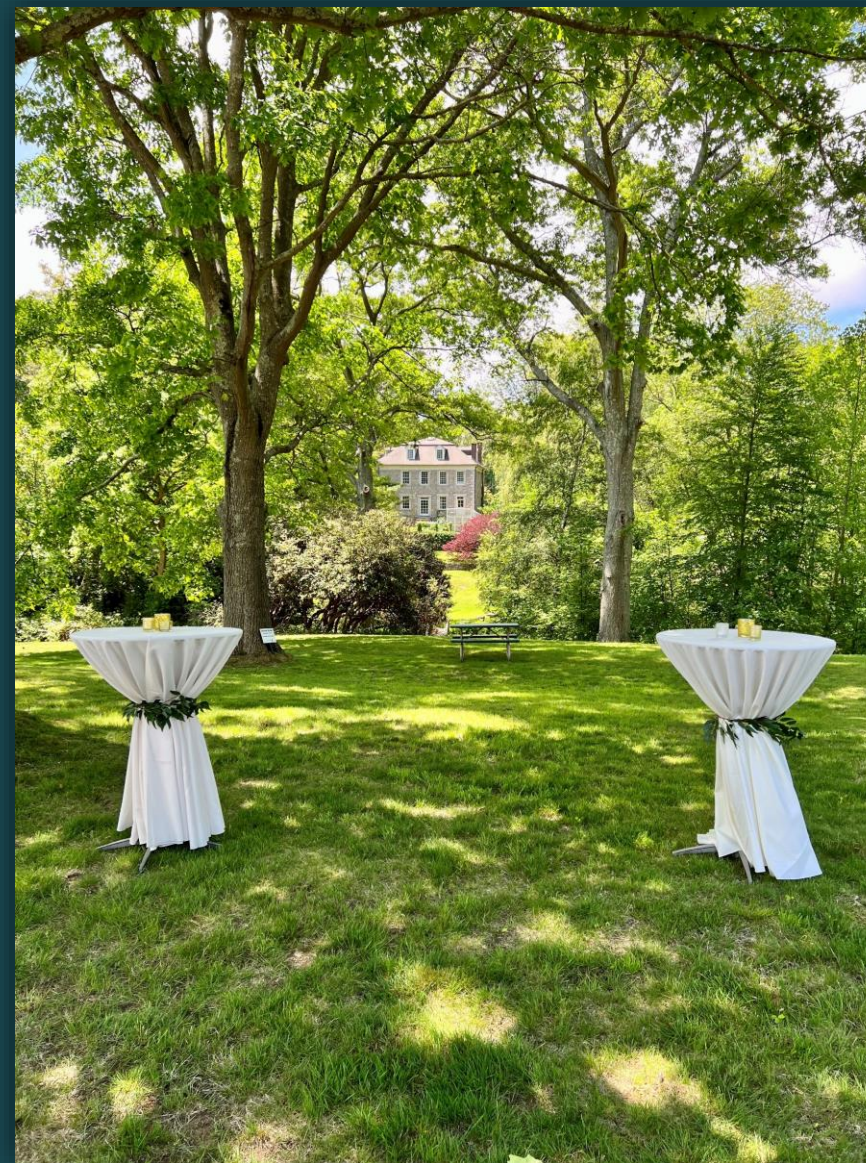

Arial view of where the new parking lot will be behind the Museum near Connecticut College's south parking lot.

Comparison of the grounds after tree and brush clearing looking at the Deshon-Allyn House from the front lawn.

The new filtration pond will be here

2024

2022

And much more to come...